

O'Connor Looks At Holiday A Little Different

Typically many people have enjoyed celebrating the holidays at Christmas parties. This year, Michael J. O'Connor has decided to do something a little different. Attorney O'Connor has made a generous donation to:

NATIONAL INTERFAITH COMMITTEE FOR WORKER JUSTICE

This is a wonderful organization that assists those less fortunate who have lost their jobs or are working in less than desirable working conditions. The National Interfaith Committee for Worker Justice is a network of people of faith that educate, organize and mobilize the religious community in the United States on issues and campaigns that will improve wages, benefits and working conditions for workers, especially low-wage workers. There are two locations throughout Pennsylvania located at:

Jobs with Justice — Philadelphia Interfaith Committee for Worker Justice
1319 Locust Street
Philadelphia, PA 19107
Fabricio Rodriguez
215-735-3615

Labor-Religion Coalition of Western Pennsylvania
1103 North Highland Avenue
Pittsburgh, PA 15206
Father Jack O'Malley
412-361-4793

Attorney O'Connor feels this is a most worthy cause as it directly benefits families and children in need not only during the holiday season but all year long.
